CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 26th February 1969

G.S.R. 537.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 25 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Government, being satisfied that it is necessary in the public interest so to do, hereby exempts component parts of the machines specified in the Schedule annexed hereto, when imported into India and proved to the satisfaction of the proper officer of Customs to be intended for the purpose of initial assembly or manufacture of the said machine, from so much of that portion of the duty of customs leviable thereon under the First Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1934 (32 of 1934) as is in excess of the rate of duty specified with respect to the said machine in the said First Schedule:

Provided that the importer shall in each case,—

(i) produce a certificate from the Directorate General of Technical Development that the component parts are required for the aforesaid purpose; and

(ii) by the execution of a bond in such form and in such sum as may be prescribed by the proper officer of Customs, bind himself, to pay, on demand, in respect of such component parts as are not proved to the satisfaction of the proper officer of Customs to have been used for the aforesaid purpose, an amount equal to the difference between the duty leviable on such component parts but for the exemption contained herein and the duty already paid at the time of importation.
